Registration Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I register?

Registration is available on <https://realityconference.ca/>

2. What's included in the full conference pricing?

The full conference package bundles the offerings to provide a better price for you to attend more. This rate includes:

- Monday: REALTOR® Advocacy Day.
- Tuesday: Keynote speakers, education sessions, tradeshow, breakfast and lunch.
- Wednesday: Keynote speakers, education sessions, tradeshow, breakfast and lunch.

3. How long can I purchase registration at early bird pricing?

Pricing is discounted for those who book their tickets early! Ticket pricing will automatically adjust based on the amount of tickets sold rather than a specific date. Discounts will not be available after the price increases.

4. Will L200, L300 and L301 be offered at REALITY+ Conference?

No, L200, L300 and L301 are not part of this conference. They will be offered during the 2023 Peak Leadership Summit from January 18 through the 25th. In-person and virtual classes are available. For more information on Peak Leadership Summit or OREA's leadership courses, please email leadership@orea.com.

5. What is REALTOR® Advocacy (RAD) Day?

REALTOR® Advocacy (RAD) Day will prepare you to tackle important industry issues and bring your voice to Queen's Park. Whether you're brand new to advocacy or meet with your MPP monthly, REALTOR® Advocacy Day has a session for you!

6. Can I attend REALTOR® Advocacy (RAD) Day without a full conference registration and how do I register?

Yes, you can register for REALTOR® Advocacy (RAD) Day without a full conference registration. Registration details for REALTOR® Advocacy (RAD) Day will be communicated directly to Boards closer to the event date.

7. Do Committee members get to attend the full conference event paid for by OREA?

Committee members are not covered to attend REALiTY+ Conference per OREA policy. Reach out to your committee OREA Staff Liaison if you have any questions.

8. What is the registration cancellation policy?

Cancellations must be made in writing to events@orea.com before Monday, October 31, 2022 less a $50 processing fee.

9. How does OREA plan to protect me with regards to COVID-19?

In accordance with OREA's Event Policy, proof of being fully vaccinated against COVID-19 is required to attend.

OREA commits to meet or exceed all government-mandated protocols to protect attendees against COVID-19. Safety guidelines are constantly changing, and may include measures such as masks, social distancing, sanitizing stations, and visual safety reminders. OREA may change, update, or add to these requirements at any time as it deems prudent to best protect the health and safety of attendees and others.

10. How do you define “fully vaccinated” in Ontario?

In accordance with OREA's Event Policy, proof of being fully vaccinated against COVID-19 is required to attend.

OREA commits to meet or exceed all government-mandated protocols to protect attendees against COVID-19. Safety guidelines are constantly changing, and may include measures such as masks, social distancing, sanitizing stations, and visual safety reminders. OREA may change, update, or add to these requirements at any time as it deems prudent to best protect the health and safety of attendees and others.

Proof of Vaccination Requirement

All attendees of the Event must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

In Ontario, an individual is considered “fully vaccinated” if they have received:

- The full series of a COVID-19 vaccine authorized by Health Canada, or any combination of such vaccines. The COVID-19 vaccines currently authorized by Health Canada are Pfizer-BioNtech, Moderna, AstraZeneca/COVISHIELD and Janssen/Johnson & Johnson;
- One or two doses of a COVID-19 vaccine not authorized by Health Canada, followed by one dose of COVID-19 mRNA vaccine authorized by health Canada; or

- Three doses of a COVID-19 vaccine not authorized by Health Canada; and the final dose was administered at least 14 days prior to the Event.

Any attendee who fails to produce proof of vaccination against COVID-19, or proof of a medical exemption (as discussed below), will not be permitted to attend the Event.

Refunds will not be provided for attendees who fail to produce valid proof of vaccination, or proof of an exemption from the proof of vaccination requirement.

10. Are you accepting Proof of Vaccination exemptions?

Exemption from Proof of Vaccination Requirements

Individuals seeking an exemption from proof of vaccination requirements can qualify for an exemption from the proof of vaccination requirement if they are able to provide staff with a valid medical certificate with a QE code issued by the province of Ontario.

Other formats of proof of medical exemption will only be accommodated for individuals attending the Event from out of Province.

Advanced submission will not be accepted. Any attendee who fails to produce proof of a medical exemption in an acceptable format will not be permitted to attend the Event.

Refunds will not be provided for attendees who fail to produce proof of a valid medical exemption.
